VENUE HIRE
INFORMATION

Are you looking to host an event at Bulmba-ja?

Bulmba-ja is an arts centre managed by the Queensland Government through Arts Queensland. The centre has performance and exhibition spaces and houses unique arts and cultural organisations including Miriki Performing Arts, Pryce Centre for Culture and Arts, Minjil, JUTE Theatre and Northsite Contemporary Arts. The centre name is pronounced “BULL’M-ba-ja”, which means house or place in Yidinji and Yirrganydji languages.

Bulmba-ja focuses on supporting the development and presentation of the stories of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and provides development and performance space for the region’s diverse and dynamic arts and cultural sector.

Bulmba-ja’s spaces available for hire include a theatre, meeting rooms, rehearsal spaces, exhibition space, and hot desks.

We are focused on serving the community of Far North Queensland and can host a variety of activities, projects and productions.
